The Library of Congress'

EARLY STATE RECORDS PROJECT

converted from the original microfilm held by the Vincent C. Immel Law Library, Saint Louis University through the generous support of a grant from the Council on Library and Information Resources

This document contains handwritten text that may be partially illegible due to age, penmanship, or deterioration of the medium. LLMC has scanned the material in the same format and page order in which it is maintained in the source document taken from the collection "Records of the States of the United States of America, a microfilm compilation."

General Assembly of the Missip[illegible]

Continued and held at the town of Washington, on Tuesday the 27th of November, One thousand, eight hundred and ten; being the second session of the fifth General Assembly held under the Act of Congress, entitled "An Act supplementary to an Act, for the amicable settlement of disputes with the state of Georgia, and authorizing the establishment of a Government in the Mississippi Territory.

On motion - The House proceeded to the nomination of two persons to the President of the United States, one of whom to be selected by him, as a Member of the Legislative Council of the said Territory, to supply the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Joseph Loftin Esquire, and on counting the ballots it appeared that Edward Hand of the County of Adams, and Benjamin Mackey of the County of Amite on the said Territory, were the persons nominated, the former having eight votes, and the latter seven.

House of Representatives
November 27th 1810

Attest Wm C. Harrison Clk. House Representatives